

CHINA

The Université de Toulouse has a strong commitment to China, reinforced by the agreement signed between our University and the China Scholarship Council (CSC) in 2011. With more than 1,500 Chinese students and 195 PhD candidates, Chinese students are the largest international population at the University of Toulouse. The International PhD Office goes every year to China to meet Master students that wish to do a PhD in Toulouse.

CSC PROGRAM

The China Scholarship Council (CSC) provides PhD scholarships to Chinese candidates who wish to be enrolled in the Université de Toulouse.

The partnership between the CSC and the Université de Toulouse is one of the most successful in France, with 17 students founded in 2015, 14 in 2016 and 15 in 2017 to do they PhD in our University.

SELECTION PROCEDURE AGENDA

- September 2017: open call for applications
- January 31, 2018: deadline for Chinese students to send their completed application file by e-mail to the International PhD office of the Université de Toulouse: phd-international@univ-toulouse.fr)
- February 2018: selection by a PhD admission board in the Université de Toulouse
- February 20, 2018: results of the selection process by the Université de Toulouse
- March 20 - April 5, 2018: complete online the application online on the CSC's website for the selected candidates
- May 2018: evaluation of the applications by the CSC and final selection
- August-October 2018: PhD Students join their research groups and enroll in their Doctoral Schools

LEVEL REQUIRED TO APPLY TO THE CSC

All theses can be fully written in English. A minimum level of English proficiency is required for all applicants:

- TOEIC: 700
- TOEFL: 95
- IELTS: 6.5

More Information about the eligibility criteria on China Scholarship Council website:
<http://en.csc.edu.cn/>

THESIS PROPOSAL: <http://www.adum.fr/as/ed/sujetInternatio.pl?ed=&pays=Chine>

HOW TO APPLY?

1. Browse the list of theses proposals list:
  - If you find a thesis proposal that matches with the research you expect to do for your PhD, apply directly on the website.
  - If you don't find an interesting thesis proposal on the list, the PhD International Office can help you to find a supervisor in a research center.
  - Send a CV and a short application letter including a brief description of your research background to: phd-international@univ-toulouse.fr
2. After an interview (e.g. Skype), the French supervisor may provide you an invitation letter to accept your application. This invitation is an internal document (in French) for the doctoral school and Université de Toulouse, not for the CSC.
3. Fill in the online application form carefully (English compulsory).

Send the application to phd-international@univ-toulouse.fr before January 31, 2018 containing all of the following documents in ONLY ONE PDF attached file (Give imperatively the following file name to the document: yourlastname_yourfirstname_yourbirthdate.pdf):

- The pdf application form
- Invitation letter from the French supervisor for the admission board (in french)
- Curriculum Vitae
- Scan of your ID card
- All diplomas and degrees certificates
- All transcripts (in English) from undergraduate studies to the Master degree
- The English or French language proficiency certificate (mandatory)

(The pdf file should not exceed 2Mo, if it is too big you may scan your documents in a lower resolution)

4. In March 2018, selected candidates will receive the official invitation from the International PhD Office.
5. With the official invitation letter you follow the application process to apply to China Scholarship Council scholarship program. The selected candidates must apply online on CSC's website (<http://apply.csc.edu.cn>) between March 20 and April 5.